Imp. SIVVEN Toulouse

At le Toucan, everything is cooked fresh on site, every day. It's simple: we like to know exactly what goes onto your plate. Our priority is your satisfaction, through taste, flavour, and traditional recipes. We cook with love and passion so that our story, which began over 100 years ago, continues for many more years to come.

A WORD FROM THE CHEF

Welcome to Le Toucan.

Here, we want you to feel good, eat well, and enjoy the moment. We have put our heart into this menu, so take your time to discover it.

And above all... enjoy.

SIDES

All our meats are served with homemade fries and little gem lettuce.

Wagyu is an exceptional meat to discover at Le Toucan.

Originally from Japan, Wagyu is known worldwide for its unique marbling. This fine fat marbling melts during cooking and gives the meat incomparable tenderness. Its name literally means “Japanese beef”. We cook it with the respect its nobility deserves, and the indulgence it calls for.

OUR PARTNERS

Quality and proximity

Our products are selected with great care. They come from suppliers located just a stone's throw from the restaurant, ensuring short supply chains, fresh produce and true respect for the craft. For the richness of the South-West, we work with Maison Samaran, renowned for its poultry and traditional specialities, faithful to the spirit of the terroir.

Fresh produce only

For vegetables and salads, we place our trust in RV Primeur: seasonal produce, delivered regularly to preserve freshness and flavour. The result? A menu built around carefully chosen local products, offering honest, sincere cooking that respects its roots.
